1. Aside from a few small details, the work on the airport is completed. Only a few men remain there who are completing the work on the hangars and on the barracks.
2. Five aircraft were seen on the field. These seem to be training planes consisting of the following: three single engine planes, one of which was a biplane having the engine in the rear, the two others being low wing monoplanes having the appearance of a Dakota.
3. Only short flights took place over the field. On one occasion target practice took place.
